PLAZA TO SHOW KIDNAPING EXPOSE

A new romantic team of unusual appeal is introduced in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Fury," starting Sunday at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne.

The co-starring leads are Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy and their acting in many of the difficult scenes of this powerful screen play approaches—new heights.

"Fury," with its excellent acting, swift-moving dramatic force and superb photography, is a real credit to the distinguished Viennese director and, incidentally, is his first American picture.

Tracy and Miss Sidney, the stars, are a typical American couple planning to marry. He is arrested as a suspect in a community where a kidnapping has just occurred, and circumstantial evidence blackens his case.

Rumors spread, and trouble-makers in the town stir up a demonstration that ends in a furious attack on the prison in which Tracy is being held.
